Christmas Quiz 2

1 - In which country is it tradition to eat KFC for Christmas dinner?

2 - What item is traditionally hidden in a Christmas pudding?

3 - In the first-ever commercially produced Christmas cards, children are pictured drinking a surprising festive beverage - what is it?

4 - How many different types of sweets are there in a standard box of Quality Street?

5 - In Tudor times, single women believed eating a festive treat would help them find a husband - which treat was it?

6 - Which way are you meant to stir your mincemeat, Christmas cake and Christmas pudding for good luck?

7 - In a 2006 TV special, Nigella Lawson stunned viewers with the surprising way she prepares her turkey to guarantee it stays moist. What was it?

8 - What is normally served as pudding on Christmas Day in Scotland?

9 - Leah Shutkever holds the world record for the fastest time to eat three of which Christmas item? (She managed the impressive feat in 52.21 seconds, on September 25, 2019)

10 - Which fruit is traditionally put in a Christmas stocking?

11 - Which monarch delivered the first Christmas Day message on the radio?

12 - Which country began the tradition of the Christmas tree?

13 - On Christmas Day 1914, British and German soldiers in the trenches initiated an unofficial ceasefire. What activity were British and German soldiers reported to share in No Man's Land?

14 - Which of Shakespeare's plays was written as a Christmas gift for Elizabeth I?

15 - Who banned Christmas carols after the English Civil War in 1647?

16 - What date in January should all your Christmas decorations come down by, according to tradition?

17 - Who was crowned King of England on December 25, 1066?

18 - In which modern-day country was St. Nicholas born in?

19 - What beverage company is credited with changing the colour of Santa's suit from green to red, since he first started appearing in their advertising from 1931?

20 - East End baker Tom Smith invented an item in 1847 which is now a staple on the table at Christmas dinner - what is it?